

Peace and Dignity Camp

June 15-17, 2007

We are pleased to announce the Peace and Dignity Camp 2007. We will be camping as friends and family again this year at Camp Nahaco in Eastford CT from Friday evening until Sunday afternoon. Peace Camp gates will open at 2 pm Friday for folks to come set up their tents, etc. but come any time you can. There will be plenty to do if some of you can come early.

As in the past, Maestro Tlakaheel, Tolteca-Chichimeca Elder and Man of Knowledge, will act as the Spiritual Advisor for the camp, and other Elders have been invited as well. The Peace and Dignity Camp is a family event and children are both welcome and encouraged to attend. There will be special activities planned for the children who wish to participate.

All camp work responsibilities will be shared by those in attendance.. The Camp is a Spiritual gathering, so of course drugs, alcohol and weapons are strictly prohibited, and no pets will be permitted on the grounds. All meals will be provided for everyone (and by you volunteers) on Saturday in addition to brunch on Sunday. Each camper is responsible for their own tents, camping gear, and trash. There are also some lean-to shelters, but you will need your own sleeping bags and pads, etc. It can get cold in June.

We are requesting a minimum donation of $30 to $45 from each individual, and $65 to $105 for families to help defray the costs of the camp, food and to assist the Elders with their travel expenses and to help support our work. Your donation above the requested minimum is tax deductible. Please note that this minimum requested donation is very low (and does not cover all our costs) so that all will be able to come. Please call us if you wish to come and are not able to afford the minimum donation, and please donate more if you are able. Please register early as space is very limited!

directions to Camp Nahaco; look on your map for rt. 44 in northeastern CT. From rt 44 go north on RT 198. At the center of Eastford where six roads come together take a left on Westford RD. Go past the school and fire house on your right and take your first right onto weeks Rd. About a mile down Weeks Rd the pavement ends, about 500 ft from where the pavement ends is the entrance to the camp on the left. We can email more complete directions and details if needed.
